Through a membership-driven model of community organizing, policy advocacy, civic engagement, and service provision, Causa Justa :: Just Cause (CJJC) seeks to build community leadership to achieve housing justice and immigrant rights for low-income San Francisco and Oakland residents. NCCLF provided a line of credit to CJJC to help it to maximize the impact of its operations at a time when its mission of defending the tenant and immigrant rights of low-income communities is as urgent as ever, given the current state of the economy.
