has provided financing to

Since 1999, First Place for Youth has prevented poverty and homelessness among youth that leave the California foster care system by supplying them with the resources and support needed to make a successful transition to independent living. First Place reaches more than 1,600 youths per year, and is the largest organization in California servicing former foster care youth ages 16-23. NCCLF has provided a $500,000 permanent loan to refinance tenant improvements in the organization's new +11,000 sq. ft. headquarters in downtown Oakland. The headquarters will also serve as a one-stop service center to over 325 youths annually.
